

MEMORIAL TO MAINE DEAD IS DEDICATED

Fighting Top of Lost Battleship Converted Into Monument is Unveiled at Arlington.

PRESIDENT WILSON IS PRESENT

WASHINGTON, May 31.—Unveiling and dedication of the Maine Memorial monument, erected by the government to the dead of the battleship destroyed seventeen years ago in Havana harbor, was the principal feature of Memorial day ceremonies in Arlington National cemetery.

President Wilson, Secretary Bryan, Secretary Daniels and Governor Frank H. Willis of Ohio were on the program, more thoroughly national in its scope than ever since General John A. Logan established services of the kind forty-seven years ago.

The monument dedicated to the Maine dead is the mainmast and fighting top of the battleship which long lay imbedded with other wreckage in the bottom of Havana harbor. Restored and rigged as it was on the deck of the Maine, it now arises from a granite and marble base chiseled in the form of a gun turret with names of the Maine's 324 victims carved on its curved exterior.

In the presence of veterans of the civil and Spanish-American wars the president, cabinet, justices of the supreme court, diplomats of foreign nations and heads of patriotic organizations of the United States, the fitting memorial was today unveiled. Fifty white-uniformed marines manning the imported rigging designed after the old rattles of the destroyed ship as the vessel fell. This exercise followed an invocation by Rev. Father Chidwick, chaplain of the Maine at the time of its destruction.

Secretary Daniels Speaks

As part of the ceremony Frank Bagley Daniels and Jonathan Worth Daniels, sons of the secretary of the navy and nephews of Edwin Worth Bagley, the first American officer killed in the war with Spain, raised an ensign to the top of the mast and hoisted signal flags flaring to the breeze the words, "Maine, 1898." The youths, clad in sailor suits, were attended by Mrs. Adelaide Worth Bagley and Mrs. Josephus Daniels, mother and sister of Edwin Bagley, secretary Daniels was on the program for the dedicatory address. On the program at this ceremony also were Major Charles F. Cramer, commander-in-chief, United Spanish war veterans; General H. Oden Lake, national commander Army and Navy Union, and Major Robert Lee Longstreet, U. S. A. Monaghan W. T. Russell, a Spanish war veteran, pronounced the benediction and "taps" were sounded.

A memorial tablet placed upon the mainmast in Havana harbor by the Havana chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, which was removed when the government removed the mast to Washington, was re-affixed to the shaft.

Services in Four Sections. Memorial ceremonies of the day were in four sections, beginning with exercises at the graves of the unknown dead, whose memory was sublated by Governor Willis of Ohio. The rough pile of granite marking the huge grave of 2,111 union soldiers whose rank and names are not known, was covered with flowers. Following these ceremonies was the memorial tribute to victims of the Spanish war under auspices of the District of Columbia Spanish war veterans. Secretary Bryan was on the program as orator of the day, following an opening address by Department Commander H. C. Wilson.

Elaborate ceremonies characterized the memorial to the civil war dead under auspices of officers of the Grand Army of the Republic and Woman's Relief corps. They were held in the historic, vine-covered amphitheater on the crest of the Arlington grounds overlooking the national capital. John McElroy, acting department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, was master of ceremonies, to introduce President Wilson and other speakers, including Post Department Commander A. P. Tasker, Post Department Commander George H. Slaybaugh, who read Lincoln's Gettysburg address, and Mrs. Isabel Worrell Ball, past national senior vice president Woman's Relief Corps.

Public Votes that Dentist May Use Some Printers' Ink

Dentists should advertise. This is the overwhelming opinion of members of the Omaha Commercial club, whose opinions on the subject were canvassed by Dr. R. W. Bailey, dentist and president of the Bailey Dental company. "We received 400 answers to our question, 'Should dentists advertise?'" said Dr. G. D. Shepherd, manager, "of these 78 per cent were in favor, 14 per cent noncommittal and 10 per cent against. But the opinion, while in favor of dentists advertising, is against the advertising of prices. This is in conformity with my own opinion on the subject. Good reason why advertisements bring the best results as we have proved here."

Held Says Driver Was on Wrong Side of Road

Reinhold B. Held, sued for $3,000 by John Cavanaugh, Albert and Edward Hoos and Misses Alice, Katie and Pearl Heikes, as the result of an automobile accident on the Park Mills road, April 24, 1915, has filed an answer in district court in which he alleges that the car in which the plaintiffs were riding was running at a speed of forty miles an hour, on the wrong side of the road, that they were negligent and that the driver of the machine was intoxicated. The plaintiffs charged that Held's car was running at fifty miles an hour.

VETERANS AGAIN FOLLOW THE FLAG

Men Who Fought in the Rebellion and Those Who Fought in Spanish-American War March.

VIEWED BY ADMIRING CROWDS

Beneath May sunshine members of the Grand Army of the Republic marched from the postoffice to the Auditorium Monday afternoon, escorted by various organizations and reviewed by thousands of citizens who paid annual respect to the surviving heroes of the conflict which terminated fifty years ago last month.

The old guard had to close up places made vacant during the last year, as some of their comrades were called by the Great Commander. These old soldiers proudly bore emblems of service for their flag and as they marched once more together, they in fancy went back to days of war's stern reality.

Young Vets March with Old

With the Grand Army veterans were the younger heroes of the United Spanish War veterans. Awaiting the coming of the parade, the women of the Relief Corps and the Henry W. Lawton auxiliary were stationed at the Auditorium to pin flowers on the breasts of the sons of battle.

Captain Joseph Mallison was marshal of the day and got the lines away in good order from the points of formation. He was assisted by Perry Miller and Charles Dorothy.

In the line of march were a platoon of police under Sergeant Ferris, the Post-office band, with W. F. Dubinsky leading and the Omaha Drum corps, C. B. Mapea, leader. The Naval club of Omaha, High school cadets and band, Nebraska National guards and Spanish War veterans were all cheered along the way as potential protectors of the nation's security.

City and county officials and officers and speakers of the day had places in the procession.

Selby Tells Story, Admitting Defeat

W. L. Selby of Dundee, plaintiff in the suit to knock out the merger law, made the following statement regarding the status of his home village:

"This reminds me of the boy who was trying to sneak into a circus. A policeman came along and gave him a kick which hurled the lad into the show. Inside the tent a man asked the boy how he got in and he replied: 'I was invited in.' That will be the position of Dundee after consolidation."

"Are you a man? Then this must be earth." Thus, Celestia addressed Stilleter—the first human being she had ever seen. Heretofore, she had been attended by winged angels, who fell before her in worship, kissing her hands and calling her "Your Divinity." Heretofore, she had been accustomed to an atmosphere of a great open expanse, with rich, heavy-scented flowers in abundance all about her. But here was a man, and thus earth was first seen by

The Goddess

This week the Vitagraph pictures show Celestia's descent to earth—her meeting with Stilleter and with Tommy Barclay and bring out those delicious moments where in her forest innocence, she says and does things that in our hypocrisy make us blush.

UNDERMUSLIN DEPARTMENT

We prefer this name to Lingerie—being more expressive, more extended, and, perhaps, more correct. A decided reaction has set in—demand is much greater for the fine, dainty muslins, and increasing daily.

GOWNS TUESDAY

An excellent number fancy Crepe, Nainsook, lace and embroidery trimmed, 98¢ special.

At $1.98—Fine embroidery and lace trimmed Gowns, worth $2.50 to $3.00.

At $2.95—Very handsome, embroidery and lace trimmed, values $3.50 and $4.50.

WOMEN'S OUTER WEAR.

WHITE GARMENTS

Waists and Blouses of the daintiest white voile and organdy, priced at 98¢, $1.49, $2.50, $3.65 and $4.95. Great values.

In the good old summer time, somehow our fancy takes us back to the past, and we remember the frills and furbelows of earlier years. There is much to suggest even Colonial times in the dainty white dresses shown for warmer weather.
